ANEW friends,

From a garage in 97 to recognition at the Bombay Stock Exchange before top corporate, philanthropists, donors and other NGOs; ANEW has come a long way! After screening 450 Ngos nationwide, ANEW was one among 12 NGOs to reach the final round. After several rounds of due diligence, a 10 min presentation with the jury, ANEW was chosen as the first runner up under the Employability Category of the DASRA GIRL POWER 2015 – organized by the DASRA FOUNDATION, Mumbai. A proud moment indeed!

"If I stand tall, I'm standing on the shoulders of giants". This award is dedicated to all the founding members, committee members, the dedicated staff, sponsors, well – wishers and above all, our trainees.

Sincerely,
Ms. Vinodini Sudhindran
President

ANEW trainees step into the Corporate Sector

Anew was approached by many corporate like Tattva Home Healthcare Pvt Ltd, Apollo Hospitals, MIOT Hospitals and OLA Cabs for trained nursing assistants, car drivers, and a few of our trainees have been selected by them for placement also.

The step from an informal sector to a formal work environment proves beneficial for our girls as they come under the perks and benefits of the company.

We earnestly hope that our trainees find fulfilment and make sustained careers, with this new career opportunity.

Visitors at ANEW

25 guests from the Rotary club of Damansara, Malaysia & Rotary club of Anna Nagar, Madras visited ANEW on 18.2.2015 to inaugurate the renovated lab sponsored by their club.

At ANEW our doors are wide open for any organization that wants to learn from or share our experiences; AZAD FOUNDATION, a Delhi based Non-Profit Organisation, stopped by at ANEW.

We exchanged stories and experiences and are glad they made a stop at ANEW on their 'Woman on Wheels' programme as part of their 'Learning Journey'.

Certification Details

The Home Nursing and Basic IT Skills Vocational course sponsored by Rotary Club at ANEW concluded and certificates were presented to the 37 successful candidates. The students of the Home Nursing Course undertook the 'Nightingale Oath' to serve humanity.

A few of the students talked about their family background and shared how this course has given them confidence to be an income earner for their family.

Life Skills batch

24 trainees from the Life Skills and Spoken English batch received their certificates in a ceremony held to recognise their efforts. The ceremony was graced by Dr.Ambuja, a retired Professor from the University of Madras. She delivered a short message to the trainees, encouraging them to work hard in their future endeavours.

Women's Day at ANEW!!!

Competitions at ANEW like Rangoli, Group Dance, Solo Dance, Miming, Mehendi, Cookery, Singing etc. were conducted as a part of Women's Day celebration.

Also, ANEW staff and students took part in the formation of the world's biggest Female Gender Symbol on 7.3.2015 at DRBCCC Hindu College, Pattabiram.

ANEW reaches out to the Transgender Group

Dr. Annalakshmi and Ms.Vinodini Sudhndran were the special invitees to the Calendar Release Event organised by "Born 2 Win".

The calendar showcases achievers from the Transgender Communities in Tamil Nadu. The proceeds from the sales of the calendar go to the Cancer Ward of a Hospital of their choice.

We, at ANEW, empathise with the cause of the transgender and are ready to give our support to help those among them who are fighting for equal opportunity. Those of them who have family / society's support have indeed proved that they can be achievers too - this calendar salutes many such achievers!!
